Some Frequently Asked Questions...

What kind of printing do you offer?

We only offer full colour offset printing. Which means we use a press for our products. For digital printing needs, contact us & we can recommend some excellent options.

Can I get only 100 printed?

As we are an offset printer, with the exception of large format printing, small batches are not offered. The minimum amount required is 500, and have incremental increases. However, with this kind of printing, the larger amounts, offer better value.

What kind of files do you accept??

We only accept high res PDF's, AI files or EPS files.

How long does it take to get our items printed?

Our average time for turnaround is about 10 business days. Business cards can be sent rush at an additional fee for a 4 business day turnaround.

What if I want to use a paper type that is not listed?

While we offer a wide range of products, please note that from time to time, there will be a specialty item not listed. That is not an issue, just contact us for a customized quote.

What happens with my file?

Once you have paid for your printing & submitted your files, you will be sent a proof within 24 hours for approval. Once the file has been approved, it will be sent for printing. You will receive a notice when your item will be shipped out.
